Workshops for Sunday, October 25th to Thursday, October 29th

Uprooting White Supremacy in Ourselves

Sunday, October 25th, 3PM EST, Zoom

This workshop explores how white supremacy not only exists outside of ourselves, but how it is embodied. We explore how it is perpetuated within the self and how to actively work to dismantle it from within.

Black Bodies as Entertainment

Monday, October 26th, 3PM EST, Zoom

This workshop provides a brief overview of Black bodies and Black culture being used as entertainment by showing historical and modern day examples. Then, we discuss commodification and appropriation Black people and Black culture and examine our own participation in this.

Interracial Friendships

Tuesday, October 27th 5PM EST, Zoom

This workshop explores the dynamics of interracial friendships and what it means to really create space for and support our BIPOC friends.

Racial Microaggressions

Thursday, October 28th, 5PM EST, Zoom

This workshop allows students to learn what are racial microaggressions and how to recognize them. We will be using scenarios to practice responding to them, whether it occurs to us or those around us.
